ARTICLE VII: ELECTION OF THE BOARD

OSAY shall install new members for the Board each year on June 15. Each year, Board elections will be held for the following positions. The Nominating Committee will be formed to prepare a slate in accordance with Article X, Section 2.

- President
- Vice President
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- Membership Coordinator(s)
- Event Coordinator(s)
- Communications Coordinator(s)

The nominating committee will solicit, via email, volunteers from the current OSAY membership to serve on the next year's Board. If all positions on a nominating slate are unable to be filled by volunteers from the current OSAY membership, a member may nominate an eligible non-member to fill a position, which shall then fulfill all obligations as outlined in Article VI. If an eligible non-member volunteer becomes part of the Board, they will need to join OSAY and pay their dues accordingly.

The new Board will be finalized and announced to the general membership following the completion of election procedures by the Nominating Committee. The current and new Boards will ensure all turnover activities as referenced in Article VI are completed no later than June 1.

If at any point the President's office becomes vacant, the Vice President will be asked to fulfill the President position. The Board shall then take appropriate steps to fulfill the Vice President position in accordance with this document. If the Vice President declines, a special election will be held to fill the President's position.

If any position, other than the Executive Officers' positions, becomes vacant, the Board will determine whether it is in the best interest of OSAY to hold a special election, or make an appointment, or leave vacant. If in the first two cases, the Board shall ask for volunteers from the general membership. Special Elections shall follow the voting procedures outlined in Article XII of this document.

1. A majority of the collected votes is required for the slate.

 - iv. Complete the review and finalize amendments by April 30.
- e. Submit to CFAY legal along with a list of the incoming Board by May 15th.

ARTICLE XI: AMENDMENTS TO BYLAWS

During the membership year, Board members may deem it necessary to propose amendments to the bylaws. Proposed amendments will be electronically distributed by email to all members unless otherwise notified. General membership will have a five-day window to review and vote. Each member is eligible for one vote. A majority of those responding must approve for it to pass. Only current members may vote. At the discretion of the Board, extenuating circumstances may require a vote to occur sooner than five days. The President will forward the approved, amended bylaws to CFAY Legal.

ARTICLE XII: MEMBERSHIP VOTING

During the membership year, the Board may deem it necessary to call a vote to the general membership on matters not previously mentioned. A majority of those responding must approve for it to pass. Details pertaining to the vote will be electronically distributed by email to all members unless otherwise notified. General membership will have a five-day window to review and vote. Each member is eligible for one vote. Special elections may be held and a majority of those responding must approve for it to pass. Only current members may vote. At the discretion of the Board, extenuating circumstances may require a vote to occur sooner than five days.

ARTICLE XIII: FINANCE

OSAY will fiscally operate on the calendar year and will submit its annual audit by February 15 in accordance with COMFLEACTINST 5760.5E and Article X, Section 1.

Funds shall be deposited in the established Officers' Spouses' Association of Yokosuka (OSAY) bank account held at Navy Federal Credit Union (NFCU) aboard Fleet Activities, Yokosuka, Japan. The Treasurer may authorize the use of a check/debit card linked to this account for purchases necessary to the organization. The Treasurer will maintain all funds. The Treasurer will also ensure that OSAY complies with NFCU minimum balance and maintenance fee policies. The Treasurer may hold a petty cash balance of no more than $100.00 at any time. Dues and other fees for events may be collected electronically using a financial servicing platform approved by the Board (i.e. Stripe or PayPal).

Board or committee members requiring reimbursement for expenditures made in the support of OSAY events shall turn in receipts within 30 days of the event to the Treasurer. Any receipts that were purchased in Yen or any other foreign currency must be converted to US $(dollars) based on the exchange rate established by military banking on the day of purchase. Reimbursements will be made in US dollars. In the case that events or activities exceed the approved budgeted amount, the Treasurer may agree to reimburse Board or committee members at the Treasurer's discretion, not to exceed $75. Any overage exceeding $75 requires Board approval prior to reimbursement.

With Board approval, budget monies may be reallocated from other areas as appropriate throughout the year to cover these expenses. The Treasurer shall report these changes to the Board in accordance with the responsibilities of the office.

ARTICLE XIV: PERSONAL LIABILITY

Per CNICINST 11000.1 (Addendum D), the organization is responsible for debts or claims against the organization before dissolution. It is understood that the U.S. Navy or any other Department of Defense component will not assume liabilities that may be incurred by OSAY, a non-Federal entity.

ARTICLE XV: CONFLICT RESOLUTION

OSAY members and Board members shall endeavor to work together to further the purpose of the organization. Should a conflict between any members arise that directly affects the operation, purpose, or welfare of the organization, any member or Board member may request a formal procedure for conflict resolution.

1. In the event of a conflict, a written statement must be submitted to the President and Advisor for review via the official OSAY email address.
 - a. If the President or Advisor is involved, a written statement must instead be sent to either the Vice President or Secretary, and a proxy for either position will be appointed to serve on the Committee by remaining committee members unlinked to the conflict at hand.
 - b. If the Vice President or Secretary is involved, the President shall appoint a proxy to serve on the Committee.
2. If there is merit to the claim, a Special Committee including the Advisor, President, Vice President, and Secretary will be formed within one week of the receipt of the statement to go over the facts of the claim.
3. The Special Committee will, in a reasonable time, notify all stakeholders of the claim in writing using the official OSAY email and the email address(es) of member(s) as submitted on their membership application.
4. The Special Committee may communicate with any and all stakeholders as appropriate to determine a possible resolution.
5. The Board will be notified at the next Board meeting once all matters are resolved.
6. If resolution cannot be achieved the issue will be placed as 'New Business' and a vote will be brought to the Board for resolution.
7. In any case resulting in a member asked to resign their membership, as determined by the review committee, dues will be forfeited.

ARTICLE XVI: DISSOLUTION

Upon the written agreement of two-thirds of the Board, OSAY may be dissolved. The Board will ensure the General Membership is notified prior to any action and allowed to provide input. General membership will also have an opportunity to vote on dissolution prior to the Board moving forward.

In the event of dissolution, all assets of the Association after payment of the outstanding debts shall be donated to a non-profit organization (e.g. NMCRS), in accordance with the COMFLEACTINST 5760.5E.

Should assets be insufficient to discharge all liabilities, the entire membership will share

In the covering of financial liability per CNICINST 11000.1. It is understood that the U.S. Navy will not assume liability (through insurance or other means) for any activities or assets of OSAY, as a non-Federal entity (DoDI 1000.15 Reference 2).

The President and Treasurer will ensure that a dissolution audit is conducted and forwarded to FLEACT, Yokosuka Office of the Staff Judge Advocate.
